Carlsbad Police Offers Parenting Program What Every Parent Raising a Tough Kid Needs To Know

Carlsbad Police Department is offering a 10-week course called Parent Project® starting September 28, 2010. The award-winning Parent Project® is a parenting skills program designed for parents facing the challenges of strong-willed, non-compliant or out-of-control children ages 11-18. These are the children who consistently test limits, argue, break house rules or engage in dangerous, high-risk or self-destructive behaviors. The Parent Project® program offers parents concrete, no-nonsense solutions to even the most difficult of problems.

Classes will be held for 10 consecutive Tuesday nights from 6 to 9 p.m. starting September 28, 2010, at the Carlsbad Senior Center, 799 Pine Avenue. The fee for the class materials is $25 per individual or $35 per couple; there is no cost for active military families.

To register for the class, or for more information, contact Carlsbad Police Department's GUIDE (Greater Understanding through Intervention Diversion, and Education) office at 760-931-2167.

Parent Project will also be presented in Spanish on the same 10 dates and times at Jefferson Elementary, 3743 Jefferson Street, Carlsbad 92008. Contact Jovita Barria, 760-434-9099, to register or for more information.
